We honour and thank stuff instead of our Creator God.

Sometimes we think that sin is when we break God’s rules. But it’s more than that. Sin is when we honour a gift of creation instead of God who gives it to us.

READ ROMANS 1v21;25

‘They knew God. But they didn’t honor him as God. They didn’t thank him... They worshiped and served created things. They didn’t worship the Creator.’

Fill in the blanks:

When you shout at your sister to get out of your room, it’s because you’re forgetting the God who gave you _____

When you take the biggest piece of cake on the plate, it’s because you’re forgetting the God who gives _____

When you lie to your mum about leaving your rubbish on the floor, it’s because you’re forgetting that God gives you _____

Realising just how sinful we are, reminds us how powerful Jesus’ salvation is! What is sin (from what we heard today)?

What is one way that you honour the created things God gives you instead of God himself?

When we realise how sinful we are, what do we need?

- a. try harder to be good
- b. stop and thank God instead
- c. realise we need Jesus
- d. give up, it’s impossible to be good
