AN INTRODUCTION TO THE CHRISTIAN LIFE

TERM 1 2025

Coming to faith in Jesus can be an overwhelming experience that is joyful, daunting, confusing, peaceful, hopeful, convicting and transforming, all at the same time. In this series, we'll be going back to the basics of what we need to know, in order to live as people who belong to Jesus. That doesn't mean it will be simple, because we'll be covering a lot of topics, such as knowing God as Father, Son and Spirit and what it means to be 'in Christ'. We are going to work hard to see some big ideas, but our prayer is that this series will give you increasing confidence in living for Jesus. We hope to gain clarity on WHAT WE BELIEVE and WHY IT MATTERS.

There will be something for you, whether you are not yet a Christian, just new to faith, struggling to hang on to Jesus, or have been going strong as a disciple for years.

We will loosely be following a book by Gary Millar, called Need to Know. You can grab a copy of his book as a further help.

As we do discuss these things, it may sometimes seem like it's too much to take in, and/or we'll never get our heads around the way God is at work in us and in the world. But we can take heart and approach the task with CONFIDENCE, because God has revealed himself in his word, the Bible. So, what he wants us to know and what we need to know can be found there.

However, we also want to approach this task with HUMILITY, because we stand in a long line of people who've thought about these things before us — and there are some things that we still can't piece together. This is because we are finite humans who are trying to understand and infinitely wise, eternal and unlimited God. So, we humbly acknowledge that he is beyond us in many ways. But this is good news, because who wants a God they can totally understand. No, our God is bigger and better and greater and more magnificent than we can describe and that should be a source of comfort and assurance. ... but more on this in the weeks ahead.

HOW TO GET THE MOST OUT OF THIS SERIES COMPANION

ON YOUR OWN— Work through the questions before your GROWTH GROUP so that you've started thinking about the topic before you arrive. You can take a look at the extra passages at the end of each study, if you have time. And there is another book you could check out for each topic too.

WITH YOUR GROWTH GROUP—Don't be afraid to stop and talk about things that grab your attention or raise questions for you. In the midst of some big ideas, we want to see how they lead us to praise God and follow him with wholehearted devotion.

ON SUNDAY—Make sure you bring your SERIES COMPANION along with you, so that you can keep track of any questions you have and record the way that God's Spirit is helping you to understand His Word and grow in your love for Jesus.

These series companions are designed to be used as either a print version, or interactively on a device. Use whichever method is most helpful for you.

My prayer in response to God's word:

'How little people know who think that holiness is dull. When one meets the real thing... it's irresistible.' CS Lewis
Is holiness dull or irresistible to you?

Last week, we saw that in our temptation and sin, we can run to God. We humbly cling to him in repentance and faith, and he pours out his abundant mercy.

God himself is holy in purity, justice, kindness, wisdom, love and power (see Revelation 4v8-11; 5v9-14). He is far beyond us, in all of these ways. His holiness is dangerous for sinful humanity (Isaiah 6v1-5). Yet, in his holiness, he draws us near.

READ HEBREWS 10v10-16

1. How can sinful people draw near to a holy God?

Through a sinless Saviour, we are holy, in our position before God. There is nothing to add to Jesus' once-for-all declaration that we are now holy. And yet, we are also being made holy, in a progressive transformation. We often struggle to see how this could happen in our lives. Our sin plagues us and it seems like nothing will ever change. It turns out that we don't need more to do, more rules or life hacks. We have all we need already, as a gift from God himself.

'To those who through the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ have received a faith as precious as ours: Grace and peace be yours in abundance through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord. His divine power has given us everything we need for a godly life through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness.' 2 Peter 1v1-3

4. How does God the Spirit transform our desires?

5. Whose work is it to grow us in holiness?

READ COLOSSIANS 2v16-3v14

God works in us, as we actively participate.

6. So do we need to add more rules to make us more holy?

7. What do our hearts need to love and cherish?

8. What do our minds need to know and remember?

When we want to change, Tim Chester says we're motivated by trying to prove ourselves to God and we think we can add to what Jesus has already done at the cross. Or we want to prove ourselves to others (seeking their praise or fearing their condemnation). Or to prove to ourselves that we have willpower and the ability to justify ourselves. It is all about me and what I can do.

In our battle against sin, we need to acknowledge these lies and keep preaching the truth to our own hearts.

Change comes when we love God more than our sin. Tim Chester says we can cultivate a delight in God's greatness (so I don't have to be in control)

God's glory (so I don't have to fear others)

God's goodness (so I don't look for satisfaction elsewhere)

God's grace (so I don't have to prove myself)

You Can Change, Tim Chester

10. What will it mean to sow to please the Spirit instead?

growing disciples

At rockypc we have 5 core values — we want to be growing disciples who are DEEP IN THE WORD, SEEKING GOD, on MISSION, as we SERVE in COMMUNITY together.

What has warmed your heart today, as you've seen how God works to make us holy and grow us in holiness? What do you want to cherish about him?

What is one area of your life where you need to grow in holiness? What would you like to change?

What lies are you believing? What truths do you need to turn to?

How are you sowing to please your flesh? How can you sow to please the Spirit instead?

Do you sometimes feel like nothing is changing in you? What do you need to know and believe?

How can our rockypc COMMUNITY grow together in holiness? How can we help one another?

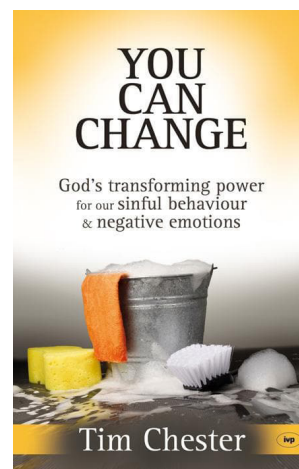

PRAYER IDEAS

- Praise God for making us holy through Jesus' sacrifice on the cross. Praise him that we can now draw near to the holy God.
- Thank God for making us increasingly more holy, in his image. Thank him that he disciplines us as a Father.
- Praise him that we're united to Jesus in his death and resurrection, so that his grace is now our master.
- Praise him for his Spirit who grows his fruit in us so that our desires are changed.
- Pray that we would work out our salvation with fear and trembling, as God works in us.
- Pray that we wouldn't rely on rules to change us. Pray that our hearts would be set with Christ who reigns in heaven. Pray that God's forgiveness would grow our love and compassion.
- Pray that our minds would be set on the life we have in Christ. Ask that we'd know we've been made new in him.
- Pray that we'd live to please God's Spirit, rather than following our flesh.
- Pray that rockypc would be a COMMUNITY that can share our struggles and failures honestly. Pray that we'd meet one another with grace and compassion. Pray that we'd help one another delight in Jesus.

My prayer in response to God's word:

How long have you been part of rockypc? What first brought you to be with us?

Last week, we thought about how the holy God draws us in and grows us in holiness. Holiness is never a solitary pursuit. God has never just been saving individuals to worship him on their own. He has always had far greater plans.

READ EXODUS 19v3-19

1. What is happening as this group of people assembles at Mount Sinai?

God formed the people of Israel as he rescued them. They were to be a kingdom and a nation belonging to him. And so he gathered them to hear his voice. Belonging to God, meant belonging to one another. The Old Testament traces the story of the people of Israel who are eventually scattered in judgement (rather than gathered in blessing), as they are sent into exile. But when Jesus comes to this fractured nation, he begins a new gathering around himself, around a new mountain and a new word.

2. What is happening as this group of people assembles in the heavenly Jerusalem?

READ EPHESIANS 2v11-18; 3v10-11

3. How important is this new people God has created, in Christ Jesus?

God had eternal purposes to make a new people through Christ.

As those who are far away are drawn near and bitter enemies become united, God's wisdom is on display to the cosmos; and, anyone who has put their faith in Jesus is gathered in the heavenly Jerusalem now.

This is an unseen reality for us right now.

Flowing out of this truth, we are also included in local, visible gatherings called churches.

rockypc is not a fragment of the greater whole, as though we are a puzzle piece that doesn't display the full picture. Each local gathering (or church) is a full representation of the heavenly reality.

God gives us multiple pictures of the communities he's gathering.

8. How are we Jesus' bride?

All of these pictures highlight how precious we are to God, that he would be so intertwined with us that we become his body, his family and his bride. Church is the place he cares for us as he shepherds us by his word. If we delight in all that Jesus has done to unite us to him and to one another, we want to keep gathering as his church.

12.As we welcome unbelievers to church, what do we want them to hear, believe and know? How do we want them to respond?

growing disciples

At rockypc we have 5 core values — we want to be growing disciples who are DEEP IN THE WORD, SEEKING GOD, on MISSION, as we SERVE in COMMUNITY together.

What has struck home to you today about church? As the gathering of God’s saved people? About its importance in God’s plans? About what we’re like as Jesus’ temple, body, flock, family and bride?

What would you say to someone who says ‘I don’t need to go to church to be a Christian’?

Are you in danger of falling out of the habit of gathering with God’s family? What would keep you away?

What do you need to remember when you feel the tug of those things? Or the struggle is immense?
See the box on the next page for more help with this.

What needs to change at rockypc for more unbelievers to join us, to be convicted of their sin and to worship God, knowing he is really among us?

PRAYER IDEAS

- Praise God that he has brought us to the heavenly Jerusalem, the city of the living God, to thousands of angels in joyful assembly, to his church, to himself, to Jesus our mediator.
- Praise God that he has united us together as a new humanity. Praise him for bringing us who were far away, near to him. Praise him that as enemies become united in Jesus, the whole universe can see God's wisdom and power.
- Praise God for making us his church as his temple, dwelling with us. Praise him that we are built on Christ and his word.
- Praise him that we are Christ's body who need one another, as we love and care. Pray we would honour one another and use our gifts to serve.
- Praise God that we are God's flock with pastors who watch over and teach us. Pray they would lead with integrity and that we'd follow with humility.
- Praise God that we are his family. Pray that our love for our brothers and sisters would grow.
- Praise God that we are Christ's bride, beloved and precious to him. Pray that together, we would be devoted and faithful to him.
- Praise God that Jesus is our great high priest, whose blood means we can approach God with confidence.
- Pray that we'd keep drawing near to him with full assurance of guilt cleansed.
- Ask that we'd hold on to the hope we profess in our faithful Saviour.
- Pray we'd stay in the habit of meeting together. Ask that we'd spur one another on to love and good deeds, looking forward to Jesus' return.
- Pray that our friends and family who don't yet believe would join our gatherings. Ask that they'd be convicted of their sin and see that God is among us. Pray they'd fall down in worship of the God who can save them.

My prayer in response to God's word:

When have you been most joyful as a Christian? What has killed/dulled your joy at other times?

We've spent all term thinking about knowing God. We have been united to Jesus by faith, so that we are now sons of God. We've been adopted into his family and nothing can change that. But our experience of being God's children varies. Tim Chester expresses it like this:

'God relates to us and in return we relate to God. So we contribute to the relationship. What we do affects our experience of God. Imagine two sons. Jack makes breakfast for his father every day and they chat for half an hour while they eat it together. Later in the day Jack and his father hang out together — flying a kite, playing football, reading a book. Meanwhile Jack's older brother, Phil, is embarrassed by his father. Phil stays in his room all day with his music turned up loud. On the rare occasions when Phil communicates with his father, it normally takes the form of dismissive grunts.

How many sons does the father have? The answer, of course, is two. And what did they do to become sons? Nothing. They were simply born as sons. But only Jack enjoys being a son. Only Jack experiences a good relationship with his father.'

Enjoying God p20-21

We have an inkling that knowing God should be joyful, though it doesn't always feel that way. Today we're going to think about how to cultivate joy in belonging to Jesus.

This term we have already seen three key ways to enjoy our God: by getting DEEP IN HIS WORD (Colossians 3v15-17), by SEEKING HIM (Matthew 7v9-11) and by being a COMMUNITY who love him together (Ephesians 3v14-19).

There are more everyday ways, we can rejoice in knowing our Lord!

READ JAMES 1v17-18; 1 TIMOTHY 6v17-19

3. How does God treat us in every moment? How can we respond to a Father like this?

In every pleasure, we can enjoy our Father's generosity. We can joyfully thank him for the many beautiful aspects of his salvation, including that we gain Christ himself. And we can notice everyday gifts of our Father, and turn to him in thanks.

Repeatedly, God tells us he's a Father who can grant us joy, even in the midst of hardship.

7. What kind of help does the Spirit give, in our groaning?

READ 1 CORINTHIANS 12v22-26; 1 THESSALONIANS 2v17-3v9

8. How can brothers and sisters bring us joy in trials?

Father, Son and Spirit are always near to us, even when life is painful. In fact, God uses these hardships to grow our perseverance, hope and dependence on him. In suffering, we often see God's compassionate, gentle and intimate care more clearly and beautifully. When we find it hard to feel joyful in suffering, we can lean into this kind of God. We can ask for and look for his comfort, rest and help. This may even lead to a deep joy that is more than happiness, or a smooth and easy life. And we can lean into our church COMMUNITY who can share in our suffering and joys. We can have great joy in seeing others grow in faith and love, in the Lord, in the midst of trials.

Most of our hardships are a result of living in a fallen world, with broken relationships, painful toil and failing bodies. And we can know joy in each of them. But God's Word tells us that there's a particular kind of suffering that can bring great joy, in a particular way.

READ 1 PETER 4v12-19

9. How is this particular suffering described?

10. How might suffering along with Christ be a joyful experience? (See also Hebrews 12v1-3)

growing disciples

At rockypc we have 5 core values — we want to be growing disciples who are DEEP IN THE WORD, SEEKING GOD, on MISSION, as we SERVE in COMMUNITY together.

How might knowing a Father, who gives us his Son, and every good gift, bring you joy each day?

How will you cultivate joy in your generous Father?

What is it in God's character that you treasure in times of hardship?

When have you known joy in suffering? (in everyday life or because you follow Jesus)

How will you cultivate joy in your current trials? What do you need to remember in the trials that are around the corner?

What brings you joy in times of sufferings for our rockypc COMMUNITY?

How will we cultivate joy together?

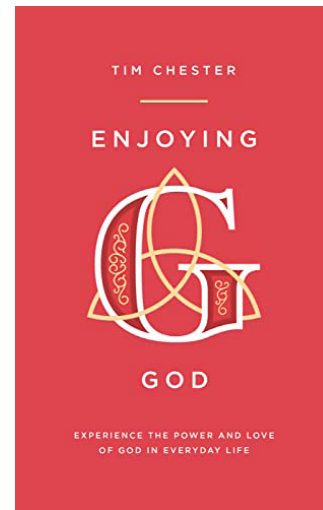

PRAYER IDEAS

- Praise God, who has given us the greatest treasure — Christ himself. Pray that we would delight in him now, and that we would press on to see him face to face in heaven.
- Praise our Father, who gives us every good gift. Pray that we would enjoy his gifts to us and give him great thanks.
- Pray that we would know God's joy in trials of many kinds. Pray that he would use these times to grow our perseverance, wisdom and maturity.
- Praise him that he is the God of all compassion and comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles. Pray that we'd rely on him, setting our hope on the one who can deliver us.
- Praise the Son who is gentle and humble in heart. Pray that we'd come to him for rest in our weariness and burdens.
- Thank God for his Spirit who knows us, who intercedes and groans along with us in weakness and pain. Pray that we would call out to God through him.
- Thank God that we can share together as a COMMUNITY when we're experiencing hardships. Pray that we'd rejoice to see the way others' faith and love grow. Pray that we'd mourn and rejoice together.

- Pray that we would have great joy in times where we are called to participate in Christ's sufferings. Ask that we'd praise God that we bear his name. Pray that we'd commit ourselves to our faithful Creator and be overjoyed when his glory is revealed.

Something I Was Challenged To Think Differently About / Do Differently:

Something I Can Share:

A Key Verse:

My prayer in response to God's word:

What do you think guides the average Australian’s decisions about what is good and right?

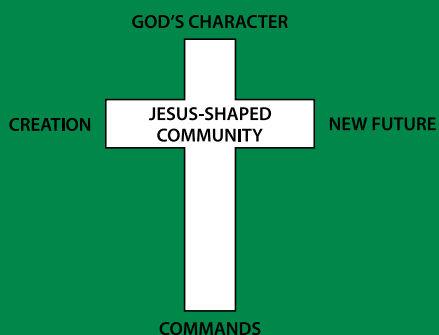

We started this series in seeing how we live in a Christ-powered world. We were made by him and for him (Hebrews 1v1-4; Colossians 1v15-20; 1 Corinthians 8v4-6). Knowing Jesus affects every part of our lives — how we think about ourselves, other people, the world; our passions and longings; our decisions, how we speak; and what we do. Being ‘in Christ’ shapes and directs our whole reality. As we get to know him better, we grow in living gospel-shaped lives.

‘Whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him’ Colossians 3v17

But it might leave you asking, how can we know what living for Jesus looks like? Western ideas about how to live wisely and morally revolve around choosing between 1 of 4 principles - Rules, Rights, Values and Results. Each of these has their strengths, and resonates a little with us as Christians. But each fall short too. See if you recognise these approaches to living a moral life:

1. Rules — following codes of conduct etc helps with the complexities of life and gives parameters to it. But rules can’t cover every aspect of our thoughts and feelings. We have to keep adding more to cover new challenges. And they often inflame our sinful desires (Romans 7v7-11; Colossians 2v20-22)
2. Rights — thinking about what every human needs and should receive as their rights, defends the vulnerable and promotes justice. But there is disagreement over what essential human rights are, and this approach fails to explain where the rights come from.
3. Values — living by certain values tries to describe a greater reality to life that goes beyond rules and rights. But in Western culture, values are self-chosen and can conflict with one another’s values. They are often vague and tell us more about what a person hopes for and wants to be, than what they actually do or should do.
4. Results — thinking about how to live in light of future consequences can promote the good of society. However, it often boils down to ‘the ends justify the means’ so that I do whatever I want and however I want.

While we recognise some aspects of these approaches in God’s word, they don’t quite match what we know about a Christ-powered world. They often fail to acknowledge the taint of sin, or the impact of group-pressure on our human reasoning. The Bible has a bigger vision, that goes beyond rules, rights, values and results, to align ourselves with God’s view of the world. We are going to see 5 aspects to this gospel vision. And then see how it works in one area of life, to help us use them in the rest of life.

3. What connection does Paul draw between the good created order and true living (and teaching)?

READ LEVITICUS 19v13-18; MATTHEW 22v34-40

COMMANDS

4. What motivates all of the commands of the Bible?

There are so many commands in the Bible, that sometimes people describe it as a 'rule book'. But this totally misunderstands the nature of biblical commands. God gave the Old Testament laws as fatherly instruction to Israel to teach them to love — both him and one another. Jesus exposes the hearts of Pharisees who use rules for their selfish gain, rather than to love (Matthew 15v1-9).

Christians often get tangled up when we think about how to obey Old Testament laws. Whenever we're reading these commands, we need to remember the story arc of the Bible. God chose to use Abraham's family to bless the whole world (Genesis 12v1-3). He gave this one family/nation laws to teach them to love, until the Son of God came. Christians are not bound by the Israelite laws. Through faith in the obedient Son, we can lovingly obey in the Spirit (Romans 8v1-4; Galatians 3v23-4v7; 5v13-26).

But this doesn't mean we totally disregard these Old Testament laws either (Matthew 5v17-20). As we read them, we take them as wisdom for living for Jesus (eg Romans 12v8-10)

Even New Testament commands (from Jesus and the apostles) are not given as rules to keep for their own sake, but as rules that promote love for God and for others (eg Matthew 5v21-26). So our love for God and others encompasses his rules, but it goes further. We don't just tick off rules, we ask 'how can I love others?'

A NEW FUTURE

5. How does the future shape our HOPES in the present? How does it shape our ACTIONS?

READ PHILIPPIANS 2v1-11

A JESUS-SHAPED COMMUNITY

6. How does Jesus shape a new community? How does this community think and act?

When we think about any aspect of living for Jesus, we can bring together all of these elements from God's word (God's Character, Creation Order, Commands, A New Future) to see the gospel reality. We need all of them to see God's world rightly. For example, if we focus on God's loving character and say 'love is love', so homosexual marriage is good, we're ignoring commands (1 Timothy 1v8-11) and creation order (Romans 1v18-27). Commands and creation reveal what shape love should take. Or if we focus only on our new future in Christ's reign, we can forget that we live in a Jesus-shaped community that suffers together to bring the gospel before he returns (1 Corinthians 4v8-17).

Putting all of this together is a life-long process, as we get to know God better, as we understand more of his word and how it applies to our world. And we can help one another in this as we share around the Bible and as we share life in Christ together. You don't have to have all of the answers on your own!

Thinking about these 5 elements will help us in every area of life. But to help us see it in action, we're going to focus on one issue (money), in one passage (1 Timothy 6) to see how it draws together. The Bible has much more to say about money, which you might be able to track down for yourself later!

9. What commands do you see here? How might they promote love for others?

A NEW FUTURE

10. How does our new future transform our view of riches?

A JESUS-SHAPED COMMUNITY

11. What role should money have in a Jesus-shaped community? What happens in a community when the opposite is happening? (See also 2 Corinthians 8v1-9)

growing disciples

At rockypc we have 5 core values — we want to be growing disciples who are DEEP IN THE WORD, SEEKING GOD, on MISSION, as we SERVE in COMMUNITY together.

What has been inspiring for you as we've thought about living for Jesus today? What has been challenging?

What steps will you take from here?

SEEKING GOD

Take a few minutes to think back over the GROWTH GROUP studies for this term. What has been impactful for you? What do you want to remember/put into practice/praise God for?

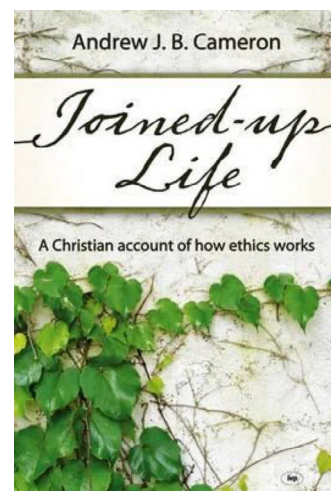

SEEKING GOD

How can rockypc be a COMMUNITY that spurs one another on to live for Jesus in every moment?

PRAYER IDEAS

- Praise God who is righteous and holy. Praise him that he is full of forgiveness and love in the sacrifice of Christ. Thank him for making us new. Ask that he would grow us to be like him, as his holiness rubs off on us.
- Praise God for his good world, full of blessing and order. Pray that we would love to live under our Creator's rule.
- Thank God for his good commands to us. Pray that we would delight to obey him, growing in love for him and others.
- Praise God that he has given us hope of a new future, through Jesus' resurrection. Pray that we'd live in light of the home of righteousness that is to come. Pray that we'd urge others to repent, and make every effort to be at peace with him, living spotless and blameless lives.
- Praise God for Jesus' humility in descending to the cross for us. Pray that we would have his mindset to show this same humility, compassion and love for all those he has joined into his COMMUNITY.
- Pray that we would pursue righteousness, faith, love, endurance and gentleness, that we might be like God. Pray that we'd receive whatever God gives as a gift from our Creator to enjoy. Pray that we would not be arrogant, and seeking our own gain with our money. Pray that we'd share generously and willingly, laying up real treasure, as we take hold of the life that is truly life. Pray that we'd be a COMMUNITY who is generous because Jesus has been so generous to us.
- Pray that God would use all that we've learned throughout this series to grow us the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ — that he might receive glory both now and forever.
